Good afternoon and welcome to the SEAH Stadium for today's Adobe FA Cup tie against Rugby Borough. After a couple of matches on the road it is great to be back on home soil for what we know is going to be a really tough contest against such strong opposition.

The FA Cup draws have been pretty kind to us in recent years, but this is probably the toughest start we could have had - although I imagine Rugby will be thinking exactly the same! We know each other very well from recent seasons, and having managed to come away with a hard-fought victory from our away league game at the start of last month, we will need to be at our best to progress to the next round this afternoon.

And progressing in this competition is something that is extremely important to us, for many different reasons. First of all, as I always say, football is about making memories, and we have been fortunate to have shared some fantastic experiences in this competition over the last couple of seasons. Reaching the fifth round and taking on WSL opposition in Brighton and Manchester United, in front of successive record crowds here at Telford, provided memories that none of us will ever forget, but also left us wanting more.

On top of that, this is a competition which offers plenty of financial rewards the further you progress, and that sort of additional finance can have a really positive impact on a club like ourselves. We want to go as far as we can in all the cup competitions, which is why I am delighted that we followed up a league win against Stoke with victories in the League Cup against Sporting Khalsa and the Challenge Cup against Hednesford, scoring plenty of goals in the process.

Those fixtures have also featured some really heartening news concerning several individual players, kicking off with Amber Hughes reaching her century of goals here at Wolves. I wrote in my programme notes for Stoke about saving the 100th goal for that particular game, and Amber duly obliged, achieving the landmark in her 113th appearance, which is an incredible return. She then followed up with another at Sporting Khalsa and then a hat trick at Hednesford, only to be outdone by Charlotte Greengrass producing a spectacular double hat trick at Keys Park!

More positive news has arrived with the welcome return from injury of captain Anna Morphet, whose ability and experience will be vital over the coming weeks and months. And then the signing of Milly Robertson, who has so much to offer, and showed just what an exciting prospect she is during half an hour at Hednesford. We now have such strong competition for places throughout the squad, but that is exactly what we need, to ensure we keep standards as high as possible for the challenges ahead.

Welcome to Lee and his team this afternoon, and we look forward to another hard-fought and competitive game.

To our fans, please get behind us as you always do, as set off on what we hope will be another exciting FA Cup adventure.

matchday diary

KATIE JOHNSON

FIRST THING

The first thing I do is have a coffee. That's the ritual, always. I have a little coffee machine and I have a coffee every Sunday, a mocha latte. One thing I always do every day, regardless of whether it's matchday or not, is take a hayfever tablet, because my allergies are insane. I haven't had a sense of smell for three years. To be honest, it is sometimes a good thing because when everyone stinks after training, I literally can't smell anything.

FOOD AND DRINK

I try and keep my food exactly the same every matchday. It always used to be Weetabix, but when I got a bit older, I switched to poached egg on toast with ketchup. It depends on whether we're home or away, but sometimes if we've got a long trip, like we had at Hull the other weekend, I can't be eating a poached egg before 8am on a Sunday, so I'll have four Weetabix instead. The fourth one's usually a task, but I'll force it down. Then on the coach, we'll usually have pasta pots, but I'm not a massive fan of pasta, so I'll bring my own stuff like squares bars and carbs for energy.

ON THE HEADPHONES

I'm not really in control of any of the music. At home games, I usually take Quigs (Racheal Quigley) with me to Telford, and we have a few songs that we listen to and dance to on the way. There's one called 'Cuff It' by Beyonce, and we always have a little dance to that in the car, and if we ever take anybody else, they have to join in the dance otherwise they're not allowed in!

TALKING A GOOD GAME

Me and Quigs will have a chat in the car on the way to the games, but usually we're just trying to get each other pumped up. It's about getting into a good and positive headspace, and then we'll talk about the details a bit closer to kick-off time. For me, football is a mind thing, and there's nothing worse than having a bad night's sleep before a game because if I don't sleep well on a Saturday night, that's all I'll be thinking about.

BUS BUDDIES

I'm a bit boring on an away day, as I like to have a nap on the coach. Sleep is a vital thing for me and I need my brain and my body to be as relaxed as possible if I'm to play well, so I always try and get some sleep while the girls watch Match of the Day. Quite often I'll sit next to Quigs, but there's no one specific that I'm racing to get next to on the coach. I've always got a little red Christmas blanket which I got a few years ago, so I look like a little Granny tucked up under my blanket.

AT THE GROUND

We usually go out as a team to check the pitch, but I just try to get in the right headspace again, to remember my role, and prepare for the warm-up. I always do a passing drill with Jade Cross before we go into any kind of extensive warm up. There used to be a little group of us; Emma [Cross], Jade and Josie Smith as well. It used to be a little four of us, but the other two have left now, so it's just me and Jade who always pass the ball to each other before a game, and then when we go into our lines for the warm-up. I'm always at the front of one of the queues, and Robbo (Beth Roberts) is behind me, and we always do a little fist bump before every game.

AT THE GROUND

I'll always kind of try and sort out my space. I want to make sure I've got what I need, and I've got my drinks and stuff sorted. I do like going and having a look at the pitch, even though we've been to most of them, it's quite nice to get out there and think about the games that we've had there before and times where it's gone well.

GAME MODE

For me, a good warm up is key. Most of the time I just want to play and get on with the game, because at that point, I'm ready, especially if it's a long journey. I like to train as I play, so a good warm-up, with good intensity, is really important. But also it's good that we're all together as a squad, we're good at riling each other up, and getting positive vibes around the group.

POST-MATCH PLANS

After a home game or an away game that's close, I will always go to my Dad's on a Sunday evening, and usually he makes a good chicken dinner. If I'm not at my Dad's, it will be some sort of takeaway, just to get some food back on board. After a match, you're so hungry, so you don't really care about the calories at that point – if you're going to have a cheat meal, then Sunday's the best day to have it.

SWITCHING OFF

For most of the Sunday, whether you've won or lost, it's always on your mind – even more so if you've lost. I always have a little debrief with my parents on how they thought I played. I could have had the worst game in the world and my mum will always say I played amazing, so that's always nice. But because we all go to work on a Monday morning, you have to get over it quickly. If we lose I'm usually still in a mood on a Monday, but fortunately that hasn't happened too many times in my Wolves career!

Rugby Borough

With Rugby Borough still to visit the SEAH Stadium in the league in February, today we look at the three previous National Cup meetings between the two sides, which took place when Rugby were known as Coventry City.

The first meeting took place in December 2004 at Noose Lane, Willenhall where Wolves, on the back of a nine game unbeaten run, struck first on 15 minutes through future England international Emily Westwood.

Becky Hall added a second two minutes later before Westwood made it three before the break, Amy McCann and Hall completing the scoring after the interval to secure a 5-0 win.

The second meeting was an historic one, the first women's fixture played at the Ricoh Arena which was watched by a record attendance of 1,057. Louise Roberts turned home Hannah Smith's cross to give Wolves a seventh minute lead, after which they had to defend well either side of the interval as Coventry responded.

But after the hour mark, a long goal kick from Tilly Hall was touched on by a Coventry centre back and Smith ran on to double Wolves' advantage and clinch a 2-0 victory.

Three years later, in January 2011, it was Coventry who secured revenge at Goodrich Sports & Social, Jade Formaston putting them in front in the first half. Crissy Torkildsen extended the lead with a penalty after the break before Abby Pope pulled one back, and Rebecca Large notched an equaliser in added time to take the contest into extra time.

But Wolves' efforts at mounting a comeback appeared to have tired them out and Kate Evans' goal in extra time saw Coventry claim a 3-2 win.

Those are the three previous meetings in the WFA Cup. So, who will be victorious today?

TON-UP FOR AMBER [1]

Congratulations to Amber Hughes who notched her 100th Wolves goal, which ultimately proved decisive, in the 2-1 win against Stoke in our last home game here at the SEAH Stadium.

Having joined the club back in the summer of 2021, the century was chalked up in only her 113th appearance, averaging a fantastic 0.88 goals per game!

Amber was also named Player of the Match after the crucial victory, the award presented by main match sponsor Horton Building Plastics, courtesy of Director Matt Woolley and his daughter.

WELCOME MILLY! [3]

Milly Robertson, a right-sided defender, is the latest new face to join the Wolves Women pack, and went straight into the starting line-up for a successful debut against Hednesford Town last weekend.

Milly, who was part of Blackburn's Centre of Excellence before joining Liverpool's Development team, then returned to Rovers in 2019, where she suffered a serious injury last season.

"We have known about Milly and her quality for a while but knew she was in a tough period due to an ongoing injury," said Wolves boss Dan McNamara.

"We've supported her through that injury and are looking forward to seeing what she can do and how she can help support our goals for the season."

Welcome Milly! Good luck for the next chapter of your career here at Wolves.

SIX OF THE BEST! [2]

Charlotte Greengrass's six-goal blast in last weekend's Birmingham Challenge Cup win at Hednesford Town raised questions about whether that was the most goals ever scored by a Wolves player in a single match.

Well, it was very close, but not quite!

Wolves Women statistic aficionados Mike Capewell and Tony Leighton confirmed that three players have actually hit a magnificent seven in County Cup fixtures: Becky Hall, Mona Nilsson and Billie Haynes.

Still an incredible performance though. Well played Charlotte!

ON THE ROAD IN THE CUP!

In another of the cup competitions, Wolves Women have been drawn away to AFC Sudbury in the second round of the FAWNL Cup.

The visit to Suffolk to take on the side from Division One South East will take place at 2pm on Sunday November 9th.
