Good evening,

Welcome back to the SEAH Stadium for our re-arranged league game against Rugby Borough.

What a great day we had on Sunday, winning the Black Country derby at Molineux in front of an impressive crowd of over 2000 people. A big thank you to all of you who were there to support us, and I hope it's encouraged some new fans to join us here at our regular home ground.

It was a special day as I joined a group from the coaching staff taking part in the Wolverhampton 10k in the morning, raising money for the excellent work done by the Foundation. I was definitely the first in our group to cross the line too!

Then in the afternoon the club made it really special for us, with a Wolves Women make-over in the dressing room, and all the excellent flags and new banner from the Old Gold Pack.

We knew Albion would make it difficult for us and they certainly did that. The girls agreed that we were far from our best in the first half and we had a few words at half time, but credit to them, they responded really well and showed real character to grind out a result. Amber did what Amber does and got her head on the end of a brilliant cross from Morph.

We want to push Burnley all the way in the title race and be ready if they slip up. But we know Rugby Borough will be doing their very best to stop us. This is the third time we've met this season and we still have another game to come in the Birmingham County FA Challenge Cup Final!

We first met in the league at Kilsby Lane back in August when we were 3-2 up by the 68th minute before Rugby fought back to score two late goals, but we managed to battle hard for the win. Then in October we were the hosts here in the FA Cup when we won 2-1 with Rugby scoring another late goal. So we know they'll want to reverse their fortunes and we can't let our standards slip.

After today's game we have a little break over the Easter weekend before we head into our final two league fixtures. We're away at Stoke on Sunday 12th April and then back here against Halifax on Sunday 26th April. Your support means everything to us so please keep it up.

Enjoy the game.

“We talk a lot about character and belief, and I think that’s shown in the second half - we did give it a good go, and we got there in the end.”

FIRST THING

I try not to wake up too early on a matchday because I love my sleep. Waking up too early is almost worse, so I try to leave it until 45 minutes before I need to leave. That gives me enough time to look at my phone for a bit, eat and get ready. I don't like to sit around not doing anything, I'd rather get it all done then go.

FOOD AND DRINK

I always eat the exact same thing every matchday as well as on the Saturday evening, which some of the girls do come at me for because it's chicken and sweet potato. It's obviously not what most people would usually be having for breakfast on a Sunday! It's not something that I've always eaten, but only since I've been consistently playing minutes, during last season and this season. I don't really like breakfasts, so I used to struggle to find something to eat on a matchday, but I know that once I've eaten what I do, I feel fuelled up. I have to not look at the time and just eat it because I know it'll get me through a match. I also take my own yoghurt with me to eat when I get to the stadium and I have to have a squares bar before I go out for the match – even if it's just a bite.

TALKING A GOOD GAME

I'll speak to my parents on the morning. My dad will always speak to me about the game and tell me to do my thing and remind me that I'm a no-nonsense defender at times and that I don't need to be and that I know where 'row Z' is if I need it. I'll talk to my mum as well, but it's normally chatting to my dad about tactics. When I get to the ground, I have my little group who I'm close to, but we don't really talk about the game, usually just general random chat.

ON THE HEADPHONES

I always just listen to Olivia Dean on repeat! I think she's just the best, no matter what mood you're in, and it brings me familiarity.

I don't want anything new, just what I'm used to, so I'd stick my playlist on shuffle and whatever comes on is fine for me. Something just to chill me out.

BUS BUDDIES

I'm usually always with Abi [Loydon], and I'll be sitting with her or opposite her, and also Louanne [Worsey], G [Georgia Marshall] and Quigs [Racheal Quigley]. There's usually four or five of us around the table, but depending on if it's a long coach journey, then we'll be rotating, because we get sick of each other! But that's usually our little group.

AT THE GROUND

I'll always put my stuff in the changing room first and then I'll go and check out the pitch. For me, knowing what boots I've got to wear, especially because most of the forwards will just wear moulds whenever, but as a centre-back I need to know what I'm wearing. The pitches are a big thing for me, especially in our league, because the pitches can really change the way you play, but it's not only the surface, but also the pitch size. For example, Rugby Borough's pitch is tiny compared to Telford or Molineux, so it's completely different. I always like to go check out the pitch, even if it's just a quick walk around for two or three minutes, just see what it's like and see if there's any bad spots to avoid – especially in this weather.

GAME MODE

If I have too much time to prepare, I'll overthink situations. I like that once we come in from the warm-up, we have about five minutes, but I have so many things to do that I don't have time to think. I take my boots off, put new socks on, put my shirt on, put my boots back on, and it feels like most of the girls get ready quicker than me, but I give myself longer so it means I'm not thinking about the game. I just try to keep myself distracted and then the next thing you know, Macca will be talking and then we're ready to go.

POST-MATCH PLANS

My routine after the game doesn't really change whether we had a good result or not. I always like to get in the shower and kind of reset. Then usually I like to stay around and talk to the girls, not even about the match but more social than anything else. Sometimes we'll talk about the game and things, but more often than not it's something else. Then I like to come home and spend time relaxing with my family and have a meal with them, which I really enjoy because I'm not really home that much as I'm busy in the week with work and training, so it's nice to have time to spend with family. Then I try to get an early night and get ready for the week because before you know it, it's Monday morning again.

SWITCHING OFF

I do find it easy to switch off, usually because I'm always so tired! A 90-minute match really does take it out of you. I realise when I haven't had a game and I can't switch off, it's because I haven't actually been running around for 90 minutes, so that's why I'm not tired. But on a matchday, it's mentally a lot, physically a lot, so I'm ready for bed and will be asleep before 10 o'clock because I know my best form of recovery is sleep. I know that if I get a good sleep, I'll wake up better.

Rugby Borough Women

Formed in 1991 as Coventry City, the club started life in the West Midlands Regional League. By the summer of 1997 they had progressed and were promoted to the FA Women's Premier League Northern Division. They remained in the division for five seasons, never finishing above eighth before relegation in 2002.

That summer they formed strong links with Coventry City men's team and expanded their youth Centre of Excellence. They returned to the Northern Division in 2004 but were relegated again after only one season.

Now playing in the Midland Women's Combination they claimed three runners-up spots before finally capturing the title in 2009/10. With a stronger team on the playing side, they finished as runner-up to Aston Villa and were promoted to the National Division.

They established themselves well at this higher level and when the league was reorganised in the summer of 2013 were placed in the Southern Division due to their location, going on to capture the title at the end of that season. A switch to the Northern Division the following term saw them finish runners-up to Sheffield FC Ladies.

2015 saw the team merge with Coventry United, taking their name, and moving home ground to Butts Park Arena. They swiftly swapped back to the Southern Division where they remained until 2018/19 when they captured the title. Despite losing the Championship play-off to Blackburn Rovers they were promoted to the FA Women's Championship.

In the summer of 2021, the club announced plans to turn professional for the 2021/22 season. But the moved turned sour as debts mounted and they went into liquidation in December 2021. The following month they were saved when investors Angel Group acquired the club and cleared the debts, however, by that time a 10 point deduction had been incurred and they sat bottom of the table.

Staring relegation in the face they entered the final game of the season away to Watford, the team above them, knowing that only a win would see them survive. The game was locked level well into added time when Mollie Green struck from a long-range free kick to dramatically snatch the win which saw them stay up and relegate Watford.

The summer of 2022 saw the club reorganise and run a hybrid system of full and part time players, but they were unable to turn things around sufficiently and they finished bottom of the pile and were relegated back to the National League.

Back in the Southern Division they moved homes to Kilsby Lane and rebranded as Rugby Borough, beating Wolves in the Birmingham FA Challenge Cup Final in 2024. Last season, once more in the Northern Division, they finished fifth in the table. They are currently third with the teams due to meet again in this season's Challenge Cup Final with the date and venue details still to be announced.

MOLINEUX MEMORIES

[1] It was a special day at Molineux on Sunday for our Black Country derby and the club gave the dressing room a special Wolves Women make-over.

[2] Old Gold Pack were on hand to add to the atmosphere with an array of flags while their specially designed Wolves Women banner, sponsored by Purcell Branding, made its debut in the Steve Bull stand.

[3] The banner features six Wolves Women legends: Beth Merrick, Emily Westwood, Anna Price, Jade Cross and Amber Hughes, and five of them were at the game. It's here in its new home in the stands tonight.

[4] From one legend to another

After surpassing the milestone in October, Jade Cross was officially inaugurated in Wolves' 300 Club by Anna Price. Jade joins Anna, Anne Johnson and Amber Quick in the prestigious group of Wolves Women stars whose names can be found alongside their male counterparts on the club's 300 Board in Molineux reception.

[5] Recognition for Robbo

Defender Beth Roberts received a framed shirt from Macca to mark her 100th game for the club. Congratulations Robbo!

[6] Tammi shines

And Tammi George was named Player of the Match and received her award from Anna Price.

[7] Tonight's mascots

Welcome to tonight's mascots Bridgnorth Spartans Under-8s Reds who are playing in their second season together. They'll be showing off their skills on the pitch before the game and getting some top tips from the Wolves Women team. Their kit is sponsored by none other than Slade legend and Wolves fan, Noddy Holder!
