LOYALTY POINT INFORMATION

Fans are awarded 10 Loyalty Points for every first team match they attend, as they accumulate this gives them access to priority to buy match tickets before other fans who haven't attended as many matches.

Season ticket holders are automatically awarded 1,000 points meaning that they will always have priority access to tickets over non season ticket holders. Season ticket holders will also earn an additional 10 Loyalty Points for every away league or cup first-team match they attend. Season ticket holders do not earn loyalty points when purchasing additional tickets for home fixtures.

Members are automatically awarded 100 points and will be able to collect 10 Loyalty Points for every home and away first team match they attend.
