Good afternoon and a belated Happy New Year! I hope you all enjoyed the festive period. It's great to be back at the SEAH Stadium for our first game of 2026 as we embark on the second half of the season.

What a great place to start - sitting at the top of the table. After our difficult summer I certainly wouldn't have expected to be in the position we're in, but it's down to all the hard work of the players and staff. There's still a long way to go though, and we'll need to continue with the same hunger and desire if we're going to achieve our ambitions.

It was very disappointing that last Sunday's league game away at Burnley was postponed so late, especially when the team and supporters were already well on the way to Lancashire. We do really appreciate the support and we all felt especially bad for everyone affected.

We now have to wait to resume our league campaign as we turn our attention to cup competitions.

We had an excellent FA Cup run, beating both Rugby Borough and Stoke City, and I was hugely proud of our performance against Forest in the third round, particularly in the second half when we really showed we can compete at that level. It was another first for the club for the Stoke and Forest games to be shown live on TNT Sports, with the Forest game also broadcast on Channel 4.

We're still in two cup competitions and next Sunday we take on Birmingham City Professional Game Academy in the Birmingham County FA Challenge Cup Quarter-Final. Unfortunately that game's not open to the public as it's at Blues' training ground, but we do hope to stream it live.

Today we turn our attention to the National League Cup as we host familiar rivals West Bromwich Albion in the Quarter-Final. We put on an excellent display against them in the league in the week before Christmas when we won 3-0 at Alexander Stadium. Three excellent goals from Morph, Amber and Simsy, just a disappointment that Simsy got that second yellow card so she misses today's game.

And we know today will be a different game and we certainly won't be taking anything for granted in our second Black Country derby in a three week period. I know Siobhan will have them ready to fight back so we have to be on it from the start. We've fallen short in this competition in recent seasons so we want to go as far as we can.

Thanks so much to everyone for your continued support.
Be loud and proud.

Enjoy the game.

FIRST THING

I don't really have a set routine because having two kids, your routine has to be a bit open. I also try not to stick to the same thing, because I know it's not always going to be the same. There are some similarities though. I always like to have a cup of tea and some nice food before and I'll always try and eat twice before a match. I'll try and have a breakfast and then also have something pre-match as well, but other than that, I don't really have a routine at all.

FOOD AND DRINK

What I eat is not always the same every week. If I'm eating at home before the game, I'll probably have some porridge or something like that, but once we get to Telford for a home match, we normally get given some pre-match food, including eggs, beans, bagels, toast, but it's never the same set thing that I'll eat. I try not to really, because I think it would get in my head if I didn't eat that specific thing, so I try and be open because I like most things and I'm not too fussy.

TALKING A GOOD GAME

Having a young family, we'll always talk about the match in the morning. The boys and my husband will always come and support me, so it's normally the topic of conversation when we're having our breakfast. We never talk about anything too detailed, just about what they think the score will be, and stuff like that. It's normally quite a casual chat.

ON THE HEADPHONES

If we're going to Telford, we normally lift share, so myself, Simsy, Char [Greengrass] and Becks [Anderson] normally go together. Although we don't have any set music that we'll always listen to, we do have a bit of a playlist that we'll all add songs onto, but more often than not, we'll just play whatever. I do like the Arctic Monkeys and music like that but then I also like dance music, RnB, any of the latest songs – anything which is a bit upbeat normally, to try and get me going before the game. I do like Olivia Dean at the minute, but her music is quite a bit slower, so not necessarily what I'll listen to before a match! Then once we get into the changing rooms, there is a set playlist, but it's very varied so I'm just happy to listen to whatever everyone else wants.

BUS BUDDIES

Naturally, with the car share, me, Simsy, Char and Becks – depending on if there's a four – then we all might sit together, but when we're all at the back of the bus where all the players sit, it's often quite open and quite mixed anyway. It's a good group we have here and we all get on well, so it's quite nice to get to speak to everyone. But having those girls here with me has made it easier to settle in. I was already really good friends with the three of them before I came to Wolves, so it makes it a lot easier then when they're here to help you settle, but everyone's just been so nice and welcoming. It's been quite a natural fit for me. Everyone's made me feel really welcome, and not just myself, but also my family, so it's been really nice.

AT THE GROUND

A lot of the grounds we have all played at before, so we kind of know what to expect, but I always like to go and take a look at the pitch. I know some of the girls look to see what footwear to choose, but if it's grass, I always wear studs anyway, so I don't normally have a need for that, but it's still nice to have a little look at the pitch, especially if you've not seen it before and it's a new ground to you. But unsurprisingly, I don't have any superstitions! When I get into the changing room, I'm pretty much just thinking about getting ready. There's not loads of time anyway, and if there is too much time, then I don't like it because then I just start doing random things or just walk around aimlessly. I like it to be quiet, calm, but I don't have a specific changing room routine or superstitions.

GAME MODE

For me, it's just those last conversations we have get me in the zone. Macca would normally come in and says something, and we all get each other up for it. We get around each other, go round in a group, high five each other, and just get everyone up for the game. Once you're in that moment, you're just naturally ready for the game anyway. You've done all your preparation, so all that's left is to walk out onto the stage.

POST-MATCH PLANS

I'm not always that hungry after games. Sometimes during a game I feel hungry, but normally, if you've stocked up well before, you should be fine. Again, there's nothing particular about what I eat and it all depends on what's on offer after the game. I always need a lot of calories as I burn off a lot, so normally I'd get myself a protein shake or something of that form and then try to get some good food down. I'm happy to eat whatever's provided, and if the options aren't that great, then probably just some pasta.

SWITCHING OFF

With having kids, it's really nice because no matter what's happened or how your game's gone, you know you're going to go over to them in the crowd and they're going to give you a hug and that instantly takes your mind off it. I do like to review the game as well and watch it back, but our lives are busy, we've got work the next day, so if you've had a good result, you're in a good mood, but even if you've got a bad result or not the one you wanted, you might not always be in the best mood come Monday morning – and my colleagues can probably vouch for that! – but you'll soon get out of it at work. Fortunately, it's all been going well this season so my Monday mornings have been quite good, so long may that continue!

Wolves v West Bromwich Albion in the League Cup

WE'VE MET BEFORE

Today's game will be only the second time Wolves and West Brom have met in the National League Cup. That game was back in November 2016 at Dales Lane, Rushall with Albion in the Northern Division and Wolves a tier below in Midlands Division One.

Wolves started slowly and Albion created the first chance of the game in the seventh minute as a miss-hit shot was straight at Sophie Glennie, making her debut in the Wolves goal. Wolves' first chance came in the 15th minute as Anna Perks' shot went over the bar. Then it was Albion's chance, Dugmore's header coming back off the woodwork before she sent a long-range effort straight at Glennie.

In the 32nd minute former Wolves player Louise Fellows' shot was deflected off her team-mate Dugmore to go wide. Albion continued to press with Warner and Stamps both coming close, but the half finished goalless.

Albion started the second half where they left off, and in the 46th minute a header by Dugmore was parried onto the post by Glennie. Wolves then had a great chance in the 50th minute after Jade Cross ran into the box, but slipped as she was preparing to take the shot, sending the ball wide.

Albion came close just three minutes later as Dugmore tried to poke the ball home from close range, but it was cleared off the line by Claire Hakeman.

10 minutes later Jade Cross took a shot from the edge of the box, but it was well-held by Albion keeper Bec Thomas. In the 74th minute a corner from Wolves' Jen Anslow found Vicky Brackenbury, but her header went wide. Albion pushed hard, with a barrage of chances as the game approached the 90th minute mark, but Wolves defended valiantly, forcing the game into extra time.

The breakthrough came in the 98th minute as Albion were awarded a penalty after Stewart's shot hit a Wolves hand. Dugmore made no mistake from the spot, putting the hosts ahead.

Wolves pushed hard to get back into the game, with Anslow, Jade Cross and Dominique Luke all coming close, but Thomas defended her goal well. With the visitors piling on the pressure, substitute Nikki Lal, also making her senior debut for Wolves, made a great run into the box to meet a cross, but her header went over the bar. Despite Wolves' best efforts, they could not find the equaliser, and Albion took the spoils.

The teams had met previously in another League Cup encounter – this time in the Midland Combination League. Wolves triumphed 3-2 with the game also going into extra-time. The teams were level 2-2 at half-time, Anna Perks and Amber Quick netting for Wolves, James with a brace for Albion. The winner that day came in the 100th minute from Anna Perks.

So, with both previous meetings going to extra time, will today's game be completed in normal time?

JOIN US FOR THE RUN-IN

With Wolves Women currently sitting top of the FA Women's National League, they have promotion to WSL2 firmly in their sights.

The Old Gold have won five and drawn one of their six home matches in the league this season. More than 850 fans turned out for our Adobe Women's FA Cup clash with Stoke City, and the crowd and atmosphere at the SEAH Stadium is building fast as we enter the second half of the season.

Representing great value and saving on the match by match price, half-season tickets will gain you entry to our five remaining home FA WNL Premier Division North fixtures at the SEAH Stadium where your support will be needed to push the team on towards the end of the campaign.

The five fixtures are:

Rugby Borough | Sunday 8th February | 2pm
Hull City | Sunday 22nd February | 2pm
Derby County | Sunday 8th March | 2pm
West Brom | Sunday 29th March | 2pm
Halifax | Sunday 26th April | 2pm

All fixtures are subject to change.

Half-season tickets are available now from the ticket office or online at fantastic value:

Adults – £20
 65+ – £20

STAR PLAYER [1]

Congratulations to Georgia Marshall who was named Wolves Player of the Match in our Adobe Women's FA Cup third round game against Nottingham Forest. The presentation was made by match ball sponsor John Rogerson of Jute Sports.

THE RACE FOR THE GOLDEN BOOT [2]

Star striker Amber Hughes leads the race for the Northern Premier Division Golden Boot award with 10 league goals to her name so far this season and five more in cup competitions. She's following in the footsteps of her strike partner Charlotte Greengrass who tied with Nottingham Forest's Mel Johnson to clinch last season's award with 32 goals across all competitions.

BOWLED OVER [3]

Wolves Women players Louanne Worsey, Anna Grey and Lily Simkin showed off their bowling skills when they joined players from the men's team supporting Wolves Foundation's Sporting Chances project. The scheme encourages young people with special educational needs and disabilities to become involved in physical activity.

FIXTURE UPDATE

Next Sunday 18th January we turn our attention to the Birmingham County FA Challenge Cup Quarter Final when we take on Birmingham City Professional Game Academy at the club's West Hills Training Ground. The game isn't open to the public, but we are hoping to stream it live.

Then we're back in league action on Sunday 25th January when we make the long journey to Stockton Town Football Club in Stockton-on-Tees to take on Middlesbrough.

Our next game here at the SEAH Stadium is on Sunday 8th February as we entertain Rugby Borough with a 2pm kick-off.
